The Truth
About Drugs
Like you've never heard it before...

Love Don't Cost A Thing Star Al Thompson Opens Up...

...about the new flick,
his fave teen movie and what he digs in a girl

Twist: So tell us about the character you play in Love Don't Cost A Thing...

Al: His name is Ted and he's part of the elite crowd. He's Mr. Popular—the star of the basketball team, the guy who all the girls love even though he's a jerk.

Twist: What's your favorite teen movie of all time?

Al: I would say probably Juice. A lot of people, like Omar Epps and Tupac, got their start in that movie.

Twist: In real life, do you think you would ever date someone who wasn't in your crowd?

Al: I'm always open minded.
Everyone has something special and sexy about them, so yes, it's always a possibility.

Twist: What are some things that you don't look for in a girl?

Al: A girl has to have goals and her own thing going on. I'm not into unnecessary things like what they drive or where they live—I'm more into the actual person.
